

Water Treatment Plant

Construction Update October 2016 thru March 2017

Work began in October 2016 with site work and excavation

Working on base layer of Detention Tanks

Prepping site and pouring base of detention tanks

Working on the exterior and interior walls of detention tank

Overview of Detention tank looking at the back side of the sand filters.

Work being completed on our two 150,000 gallon backwash water earthen lagoons

Completed the tie-in to the RAW well water line and FINISHED water line

Completed sodium hydroxide and sodium hypochlorite spill containment areas

Delivered sodium hydroxide and sodium hypochlorite storage containers.
Installing one induced draft aerator.

Underground electrical conduits run to each well.

